

Letter of Introduction1st January 2026

To whom it may concern,

This is to confirm that Rime information Bureau is acting as an information gathering source on behalf of the Atradius Group.

Atradius, as a multinational Credit Insurer, has more than 150 offices in 50 countries across the globe, covering risks on buyers throughout the world. The information gathered by our information sources is vital in making more than 22,000 trade decisions daily. The information supplied is used for the business purposes of the Atradius Group.

A company's reluctance to provide adequate information may impair the ability of Atradius to assess the risks we take on behalf of our clients and may lead to insurance cover being reduced or stopped to an extent that may not have been necessary had satisfactory information been provided

In order for Atradius to ensure that it has the best possible information, we would be grateful if you could provide information, including financial information, to Rime Information Bureau

Kind regards,

MORGAN Hugh
